

A talk by Tracey Smith

Tracey is a writer, author and broadcaster on sustainable living and the UK's leading expert on downshifting, 'Talks a Lot of Old Rubbish'.

SUSTAINABLE
SOMERSET
learning for the future

BIS Department for Business Innovation & Skills

Somerset
Skills & Learning

THE LEARNING
REVOLUTION

Call 0845 688 0488 for more details and to enrol.

www.learnsomerset.co.uk

Celebrating Transition Towns Week

Somerset Skills & learning, Abbots Court, Benedict Street, Glastonbury, BA6 9NP

Saturday 20th February 2010

10:00 - 12:00 'Healthy Eating and Lifestyle' workshop.

13:00 - 15:00 The internationally renowned expert on rubbish Tracey Smith will be giving a highly amusing presentation on recycling/reusing and creating an environmentally friendly lifestyle.

15:00 - 17:00 A video link up between Glastonbury Transition and Frome Transition Groups to discuss post Copenhagen.

17:00 - 19:00 'The Powerdown Show'. A series of short humorous films exploring environmental issues and the work of Transition Towns - additional dates taking place across Somerset.

